

SECURITY INFORMATION

RECORD COPY

10551

SPECIAL ITALIAN ACCESSIONS (Aktensammelstelle Sued Collection)

A list of military documents of intelligence informational value selected from the Italian Collection of the German Military Documents Section, Departmental Records Branch, AGO. The documents are available at GMDS, Federal Records Center, King and Union Streets, Alexandria, Virginia.

Prepared by

FOREIGN DOCUMENTS DIVISION

February 1953

RECORD COPY

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
2430 E Street, NW
Washington, DC

Nazi/Japanese War Crimes Task Force review completed

This material contains information affecting the national defense of the United States within the meaning of the espionage laws, Title 18, USC, Secs. 793 and 794, the transmission or revelation of which in any manner to an unauthorized person is prohibited by law.

CONFIDENTIAL

SPECIAL ITALIAN ACCESSIONS

(AKTENSAMMELSTELLE SUEDE COLLECTION)

The records of the Aktensammelstelle Sued (Italian Collection) on deposit at the German Military Documents Section (GMDS), Departmental Records Branch, Adjutant General's Office, consists of a fragmented assortment of Italian headquarters studies (correspondence files, maps, charts, graphs, and photographs) which were selected by the Germans when they came into possession of the Italian holdings during World War II.

The 3784 documents that comprise the collection may be considered under five major headings:

1. Italian Expeditionary Force to the USSR, the 8th Army (Corpa di Spedizione Italiano in Russia) 1941 - 1942
2. Italian occupation and campaigns in the Balkans (with German participation) 1941 - 1943)
3. Italo-British conflict in Africa and in the Mediterranean
4. Military and civil defense of Italy, 1939 - 1943 (includes Sardinia and Corsica)
5. Miscellaneous

This report presents a brief content description of 194 documents of the collection found to be of strategic intelligence interest. The information on each document is presented in the following order:

1. Document Number (number to be referred in ordering document)
2. Brief content description (this is not the "title" or "name" of the document)
3. Issuing agency
4. Number of pages, maps, sketches, or photographs
5. Language is indicated if other than Italian

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

It. 5A and 5F: Greek intention and operations overflow into Albania; Italo-Chetnic conference at Visegrad, Yugoslavia, 3-19 Nov. 1951, Comando Superiore Forze Armate Albania, 20 pp.

It. 9A: Plan for the military occupation of the Malta Island group: Operation C3, to gain control of the central Mediterranean, 1941-1942, Italian High Command, 300 pp. and maps.

It. 9B: Italian Military Mission reports on Spain, 1941-1942, Italian Military Mission in Spain, 25 reports, 500 pp.

It. 19: Situation reports on Italian occupied Corsica, June-August 1943, Italian High Command, 30 pp.

It. 20: An appraisal of the Italo-German operational cycle in North Africa, 16 Nov. 1942 - 4 Feb. 1943, by Marshal Ettore Bastico, Supreme Commander Armed Forces, Libya, 30 pp. and 24 annexes.

It. 21: A report on the Degaulist activity of an Italian colonel in Corsica, June 1943, Royal Carabineers, 2 pp. (German translation).

It. 23: Reciprocity agreement between Italian and German armed forces, September 4, 1943, Italian High Command, 20 pp.

It. 24: Conference between Marshal Keitel and Marshal Cavallero to discuss mutual shortages of manpower and munitions and to renew strategy, 25 August 1941, 17 pp.

It. 25: Memorandum to Mussolini by Chief of G-Staff on employment of Italian and German forces in Greece, and on determining the command of the combined forces, 12 June 1943, Italian High Command, 6 pp.

It. 26: Conferences between German and Japanese ranking officers and the Italian Chief of Staff and il Duce, and between flag and general officers of the Italian High Command, Comando Supremo, 200 pp.

It. 83: Study of permanent fortifications in the SE area between the former Italo Yugoslav border and the 2nd defense system 1941-1942, XI Corpo d'Armata, 20 pp. with map and statistical table.

It. 84: Reports from the Royal Carabineers and the IV Border Legion on the situation across the Italian border, 1940-1941, Comando Difesa Territoriale-Udine, 40 pp.

It. 89: Ozalid maps (1:25,000) of Godovici and Postumia areas showing the Italian defensive system along this border, 1943, 50 maps and 50 tables.

CONFIDENTIAL

It. 90A: Report on Udine fortification in progress, 16-30 April 1943, Comando 8a Armata, 40 pp. of text and tables.

It. 93A, B, C: Directives on Italo-Yugoslav border strong-point construction; Engineer Inspector General's circulars on defense system for Italy and Africa; directives by the War Ministry concerning preferred methods of defense system for Italy and Africa, 1938-1939-1940, Ministero della Guerra Ispettorato del Genio, 200 pp. of text and 2 sketches.

It. 94: Situation reports on rebellion against Italian and German occupation of Sarajevo, Nov.-Dec. 1951, Comando Supremo, 10 pp. and maps.

It. 95: A description of the Albanian-Greek theater of operations, Comando Supremo Ufficio Operazioni, 17 pp. and 5 maps.

It. 96A: A High Command report on Italian air and naval action against British surface and naval-air forces. Damage is tabulated, 25-29 Sep. 1941, Comando Supremo, 7 pp. 2 charts, 1 table.

It. 96B: A report on the Spanish Blue Division training in Germany (Volunteers for the Russian front), September 1941, Comando Supremo.

It. 98: Miscellaneous correspondence between the Italian Expeditionary Force to Russia (CSIR) and the Italian High Command in Rome. Some after-action reports, July to December 1941, Corpo di Spedizione Italiano in Russia (Ottava Armata), 25 pp. of text.

It. 100: Italian High Command, Rome, to Italian 2nd Army for suppression of Rebellion in Bosnia, 1941, Comando Supremo, 100 pp. and 5 maps and overlays (1:150,000).

It. 101: Statistical table of Italian Army Command T/O and functions, 1944, Comando Supremo Stato Maggiore Generale, one table.

It. 102: Discussions by Gen. Von Rintelen and the Italian High Command on the protection of rail and telephone facilities at the Brenner Pass, 1943, Comando Supremo, 10 pp.

It. 103: Statistics on the total number of German service and civilian personnel stationed in Italy, 1943, Comando Supremo Stato Maggiore Generale.

It. 104: Talks between General Trossel and Westphall on choice of German troop dispositions. German and Italian commands disagree on probable landing sites of enemy, August 1943, 11 pp.

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

It. 105: Various reports of enemy action against Italian coastal shipping, ports, etc. German criticism refuted by Italian High Command, 1943, Comando Supremo, 25 pp. and 2 sketches.

It. 106: Situation reports and urgent predictions of enemy invasion of Italy sent from various points in Europe, 1943, Comando Supremo, 150 pp. with teletyped despatches and several maps.

It. 113: Reconstruction of Ravenna and Cosseria divisions with new T/O after service on Russian front, February 1943, Comando Ottava Armata.

It. 114: Weekly intelligence bulletins covering Italo-Russian action on the southeast Russian front in the Don River valley near Pavlovsk, 22 Sep. 1942 - 8 Dec. 1942, Comando 8a Armata-Ufficio Informazioni, 9 reports with maps and tables, 200 pp.

It. 117: Report on operations of the XXXV Army Corps, CSIR, covering 25 Nov. to 31 Dec. 1942. Includes 6 pp. on separate description of retreat, Jan. 1943, 85 pp.

It. 125: German reports on training and movements of British and U.S. forces in July-August 1943. Information refers to U.S. and U.K. locations, and overseas movements, July-August 1943, Oberkommando des Heeres, Fremde Heere West III/V, 3 pp. (German with Italian translation).

It. 135: Two reports, by general officers, of their operational experiences in North Africa. Information requested informally by the Italian General Staff, May 1941 to February 1943, Comando Superiore Forze Armate della Libia, 32 pp.

It. 158: Plans for antitank obstacles in the Drava River valley. Miscellaneous correspondence, technical drawings and planimetric tables, 1938-1939, IV Corpo di Armata Sezione Genio, Bolzano, 300 pp.

It. 161: Planimetric drawings of projected military installations along the Italo-Austrian border, 1940-1942, IV Corpo d'Armata, Bolzano, 100 drawings, Scale 1:500 and 1:200.

It. 170: Repeated requests by the Italian High Command to German liaison officer in Rome for German war materiel. Records of requirements filled, January-June 1943, Comando Supremo, 100 pp.

It. 174: Italian High Command presentation of vital Italo-German rail connections to be defended against air attack. German interests confined to Brenner Pass, 1943, Comando Supremo, 50 pp. including statistical tables and map.

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

It. 176: Evaluation of employment of the various fighting arms, including Italian aviation and the German headquarters, in the battle of Alamein, no date, General Francesco Arena, 20 pp.

It. 178: Ground fortifications in the USSR, March 15, 1941. (Appears to be translation of German document by OKW IV - Fremde Heere Ost (IIb), 31 March 1941), Comando Superiore dell'Esercito, 52 pp., maps not attached.

It. 179: A monograph on the Near East, with separate treatment of former Mesopotamia, (presumably, Italian High Command), 17 pp. One geologic and one climatic map.

It. 181: Alleged statement by Japanese Admiral Nomura regarding differences of opinion between German and Japanese general staffs on conduct of the war, January 29, 1944, 3 pp. German translation of Italian G-2 document.

It. 183: Irregular units serving with Italy in February 1943 and attached to various divisions or Italian brigade-size teams, 28 February 1943, V, VI, XVII, Corpi d'Armata, 13 pp.

It. 184: Disarmament of Chetniks as a problem for the Italo-German High Commands. Distinction made for Catholic Chetniks who were not Mihajlovich followers, February 1943, Comando Supremo, Ufficie Operazioni, 30 pp.

It. 185: Monthly reports on the political and military situation in Italian occupied Yugoslavia, July-August 1943, Comando Seconda Armata Ufficio Informazioni, 40 pp.

It. 194: Directives for reconnaissance in the Tarvisio area; plans for defense system along Italo-Yugoslav border; maps of fortifications, 1939-1940, XIV Corpo d'Armata, Treviso, 300 pp. and 40 maps.

It. 211: Graphic mobilization indexes for 1931 by field armies and attached divisions and commands. Presumed OB in 1939, and 1940, Ministero della Guerra-SIM.

It. 218: Topographic studies of 48 Yugoslav areas, presented in three parts for each area: informational, descriptive, and tactico-logistical, 1940, XI Corpo d'Armata Sezione Topografica, 48 folders, each with approx. 30 pp., and a sketch of itinerary.

It. 277: Monte Coppa fortification plans with ozalid maps, overlays and drawings. Offensive and defensive systems, 1940, XIV Corpo d'Armata, 30 maps (1:25,000) and drawings (1:100cm; 1:200 cm) and 20 pp. of text.

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

It. 278: Plans for telephone communications and construction of defense system on Monte Coppa, 1938, VI Corpo d'Armata Bologna.

It. 279: Plans to fortify Sella di Lom, 1940, Comando XIV Corpo d'Armata, Treviso, 9 pp. and one drawing.

It. 280: Plans to fortify Mounts Osternig and Acomizza on the Italo-Austrian border, September 15, 1941, Comando XIV Corpo d'Armata, Treviso, maps (1:10000) drawings (1:100) 10 pp. text.

It. 281: Fortification plans for Mounts Acomizza and Cocco, 1940, Comando XIV Corpo d'Armata, Treviso, 10 pp. text, 2 maps.

It. 282: Fortification plans in the Valbruna area, 1939, Comando XIV Corpo d'Armata, Treviso, 5 pp. text, several ozalid maps and drawings.

It. 283: Plans to fortify Soglia di Ratece, 1939, Comando XVI Corpo d'Armata, 4 pp. text.

It. 284: Plans to construct a chain of forts along the three borders in the Val Ugua-Val Filza area, 1939-1940, Comando XVI Corpo d'Armata, 100 pp. of text and maps (1:25000).

It. 285: Plans to construct defensive lines along the Italo-Austrian border in the Malborgheto-Valbruna area, 1939-1940, XIV Corpo d'Armata, 300 pp. of text, maps (1:10000) and drawings.

It. 286: Plans and fortification system in the Forcella-Nebria area, 1939, XIV Corpo d'Armata, 40 pp. of text and ozalid maps.

It. 287: Minutes of military board on defensive system in Monte Pizzul area, 1939, XIV Corpo d'Armata, 40 pp. text and 2 maps.

It. 288: Plans for construction of defensive system in Monte Val Dolce area, 1939-1940, XIV Corpo d'Armata, 35 pp. text and one map.

It. 289: Fortification plans for the Rio Lussari area, 1939, XIV Corpo d'Armata, 5 pp. text and one ozalid map.

It. 290: Plans for construction of forward fortification line in Val Bartolo, 1939, XIV Corpo d'Armata, 10 pp. text and 10 maps.

It. 291: Plans for fortification of rear defensive line in Val Bartolo, 1939, XIV Corpo d'Armata, 10 pp. text and five maps.

CONFIDENTIAL

It. 292: Fortification plans for Monte Goriane and Capin di Levante area, 1942, XIV Corpo d'Armata, 5 pp. text and five maps (1:25000).

It. 293: Plans to remodel fortification lines in the Porticina (coccau) area. Some plans annulled, 1938-1940, VI Corpo d'Armata, Bologna, 50 pp. text, 10 maps (1:10000) and drawings.

It. 294: Correspondence on defense project in Sella Canton between Bartolo and Monte Goriane, 1940, XIV Corpo d'Armata, 20 pp. text, 5 maps and 20 drawings.

It. 295: Correspondence on fortification plans in Coccao di sopra (upper Coccao), 1939-1940, XIV Corpo d'Armata, 100 pp. text, maps (1:10000) and drawings.

It. 296: Correspondence on fortification study for Valle Slizza and Plezzo di Tarvisio, 1939-1940, XIV Corpo d'Armata, 40 pp. of text, maps (1:10000) and drawings.

It. 297: Correspondence on fortifying Sacca di Monte Castello area (no maps or drawings), 1939, XIV Corpo d'Armata, 10 pp.

It. 298: Correspondence on the construction of strong points in the Monte Castello-Villabassa area, 1939-1940, XIV Corpo d'Armata, 30 pp. of text and maps (1:10000).

It. 299: Fortification plans for Cortina, Prati Mesule and Cavallar, 1940, XIV Corpo d'Armata, approx. 250 pp. of text and maps (1:1000000).

It. 300: Fortification plans for Monte Leila and Monte Cavallar, 1939-1940, XIV Corpo d'Armata, approx 50 maps (1:10,000) and drawing (1:100).

It. 319: Aereal mosaics taken along Italo-Slovenian border. Also several hundred panoramas of the anti-tank obstacles along same border, 1940, Comando Difese Territoriale, 8 folding strips and 2 large mosaic folders.

It. 384N: Directives from War Ministry to Presidio Monti (Mountain Garrison) on construction of forts in NE Italy, 1940, Ministero della Guerra, 40 pp. text and 50 drawings.

It. 522: Treatment of captured Chetniks and Communists. Italo-Croatian negotiations of a political and economic nature, 1942, Comando della 2a Armata, 200 pp.

CONFIDENTIAL

It. 548: Agreements and minutes of negotiations between the Italian 2nd and the German 2nd armies for the demarcation of separate political borders in occupied Yugoslavia, 1941, Comando Corpo d'Armata Celere, 30 pp. (Italian and German).

It. 564: Unclassified news of a political and military nature sent in bulletin form to the High Command in Rome from Berlin, February to August 1943, Comando Supremo Ufficio di Collegamento Presso OKW, Berlino.

It. 587: Italian and German operations reported from all Axis theatres during March 1943. Navy and Air recorded separately, Comando Supremo-Ufficio Operazioni.

It. 630: Minutes of politico-military meetings held in Rome and at 2nd Army Hq. to determine policy matters affecting Italo-German occupation of Croatia. Mihajlovich mentioned. Directives for 2nd Army operations in Bosnia, December 1941 - January 1942, 2a Armata - VI Corpo d'Armata, 100 pp.

It. 655: Minutes of meeting held by 8 Italian, German, Croatian general officers on 3 March 1942 in Abazzia, to plan the eradication of rebels in Croatia. Directives for operations in Bosnia against Chetniks and other partisans. Negotiations with Chetniks, 1942, Comando 2a Armata, 200 pp. and railway maps.

It. 657: Reports and directives by 2nd Army concerning operations in Eastern Bosnia and Herzegovina. German forces accused of embarrassing Italian divisions by operating ahead of given schedule, 1942, Comando 2a Armata, 250 pp. and 10 maps.

It. 660 - 663: Highway and port studies of Albania. Mission of Italian covering force along Italo-French border. Organization of covering force along Italo-Austrian border in Pusterese-Carnia area. Plans for offensive against Yugoslavia and Greece via Albania, 1940, Comando 3a Armata, Comando 1a Armata, Ministero della Guerra, Comando Presidio Monti, 400 pp. and maps.

It. 664A: Summary studies of strategic concentration of 3rd Army in the probable areas of employment: Alpine borders, Albania, and main islands of the Mediterranean, 1940, Comando Terza Armata, 175 pp. and maps.

It. 673: After-action report on Pantelleria Island attack by US-British forces. Directives on Italian coastal and sea frontier defenses, and on lessons learned from the occupation of Attu and from combat on the Soviet front, 1943, Stato Maggiore R. Esercito - Comando 3a Armata, 200 pp. and 2 maps.

- 4 -

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

It. 292: Fortification plans for Monte Goriane and Capin di Levante area, 1942, XIV Corpo d'Armata, 5 pp. text and five maps (1:25000).

It. 293: Plans to remodel fortification lines in the Porticina (Coccao) area. Some plans annulled, 1938-1940, VI Corpo d'Armata, Bologna, 50 pp. text, 10 maps (1:10000) and drawings.

It. 294: Correspondence on defense project in Sella Canton between Bartolo and Monte Goriane, 1940, XIV Corpo d'Armata, 20 pp. text, 5 maps and 20 drawings.

It. 295: Correspondence on fortification plans in Coccao di sopra (upper Coccao), 1939-1940, XIV Corpo d'Armata, 100 pp. text, maps (1:10000) and drawings.

It. 296: Correspondence on fortification study for Valle Slizza and Plezzo di Tarvisio, 1939-1940, XIV Corpo d'Armata, 40 pp. of text, maps (1:10000) and drawings.

It. 297: Correspondence on fortifying Sacca di Monte Castello area (no maps or drawings), 1939, XIV Corpo d'Armata, 10 pp.

It. 298: Correspondence on the construction of strong points in the Monte Castello-Villabassa area, 1939-1940, XIV Corpo d'Armata, 30 pp. of text and maps (1:10000).

It. 299: Fortification plans for Cortina, Prati Mesule and Cavallar, 1940, XIV Corpo d'Armata, approx. 250 pp. of text and maps (1:1000000).

It. 300: Fortification plans for Monte Leila and Monte Cavallar, 1939-1940, XIV Corpo d'Armata, approx 50 maps (1:10,000) and drawing (1:100).

It. 319: Aerial mosaics taken along Italo-Slovenian border. Also several hundred panoramas of the anti-tank obstacles along same border, 1940, Comando Difese Territoriale, 8 folding strips and 2 large mosaic folders.

It. 384N: Directives from War Ministry to Presidio Monti (Mountain Garrison) on construction of forts in NE Italy, 1940, Ministero della Guerra, 40 pp. text and 50 drawings.

It. 522: Treatment of captured Chetniks and Communists. Italo-Croatian negotiations of a political and economic nature, 1942, Comando della 2a Armata, 200 pp.

CONFIDENTIAL

It. 548: Agreements and minutes of negotiations between the Italian 2nd and the German 2nd armies for the demarcation of separate political borders in occupied Yugoslavia, 1941, Comando Corpo d'Armata Celere, 30 pp. (Italian and German).

It. 564: Unclassified news of a political and military nature sent in bulletin form to the High Command in Rome from Berlin, February to August 1943, Comando Supremo Ufficio di Collegamento Presso OKW, Berlino.

It. 587: Italian and German operations reported from all Axis theatres during March 1943. Navy and Air recorded separately, Comando Supremo-Ufficio Operazioni.

It. 630: Minutes of politico-military meetings held in Rome and at 2nd Army Hq. to determine policy matters affecting Italo-German occupation of Croatia. Mihajlovich mentioned. Directives for 2nd Army operations in Bosnia, December 1941 - January 1942, 2a Armata - VI Corpo d'Armata, 100 pp.

It. 655: Minutes of meeting held by 8 Italian, German, Croatian general officers on 3 March 1942 in Abazzia, to plan the eradication of rebels in Croatia. Directives for operations in Bosnia against Chetniks and other partisans. Negotiations with Chetniks, 1942, Comando 2a Armata, 200 pp. and railway maps.

It. 657: Reports and directives by 2nd Army concerning operations in Eastern Bosnia and Herzegovina. German forces accused of embarrassing Italian divisions by operating ahead of given schedule, 1942, Comando 2a Armata, 250 pp. and 10 maps.

It. 660 - 663: Highway and port studies of Albania. Mission of Italian covering force along Italo-French border. Organization of covering force along Italo-Austrian border in Pusterese-Carnia area. Plans for offensive against Yugoslavia and Greece via Albania, 1940, Comando 3a Armata, Comando 1a Armata, Ministero della Guerra, Comando Presidio Monti, 400 pp. and maps.

It. 664A: Summary studies of strategic concentration of 3rd Army in the probable areas of employment: Alpine borders, Albania, and main islands of the Mediterranean, 1940, Comando Terza Armata, 175 pp. and maps.

It. 673: After-action report on Pantelleria Island attack by US-British forces. Directives on Italian coastal and sea frontier defenses, and on lessons learned from the occupation of Attu and from combat on the Soviet front, 1943, Stato Maggiore R. Esercito - Comando 3a Armata, 200 pp. and 2 maps.

CONFIDENTIAL

It. 674: Defense of the Italian peninsula as outlined in the directives of the General Staff and Army Group South, 1943, Stato Maggiore R. Esercito - Comando Gruppo Armato Sud, 150 pp. and 1 map.

It. 687: Plans for the defense of the naval operating base at La Spezia, the hinge of Tyrrhenian naval operations, Oct. 1942, Comando in Capo Dipartimento Alto Tirreno, 50 pp. text, 6 maps and charts.

It. 695: Plans for the defense of central and southern Italian sea frontiers, including the main islands: Corsica, Sardinia and Sicily, Oct. 1942, Comando Gruppo Armate Sud, 50 pp. and 3 annexed tables.

It. 699: Plans to abolish the ports of Leghorn and St. Stefano, to deny their use to the enemy. Statistical tables of explosives for every structure to be destroyed, Comando Va Armata, 125 pp. text, 50 drawings (1:100 - 1: 1,000) and charts (1:10,000).

It. 702: Numbered list of Sardinian coastal defenses, showing type and location. Maps spot nature and location of each installation, Oct. 1942, Comando XIII Corpo d'Armata (Cagliari), 40 pp. text and 53 topographic maps (1:100,000).

It. 711: Map of Pontine Islands (Ponza, Palmarola, Zannone) in folder on defense of islands near Gaeta, Map 1:25,000.

It. 713: Garrison and administration of minor islands of the Tyrrhenian Sea, 1942, Comando Difesa Territoriale, 20 pp. text and 10 maps.

It. 724: Graphs of Italian Army and Navy situation on the island of Elba, July 1943, Comando Territoriale Firenze, 4 graphs (1:25,000).

It. 734: Plans for first and second class disconnections in Florence Defense Command (central Italy). Information on whether destruction can be by-passed, 1943, Comando Genio - Difesa Territoriale di Firenze, 20 pp. text, 18 maps (1:25,000), and 7 maps (1:100,000).

It. 735: Situation maps (1:500,000) of coastal defense installations on 30 June 1943 in the Florence Defense Command, 1943, Comando Difesa Territoriale di Firenze, 15 maps.

It. 736 (part of): Situation maps of II Army Corps in coastal positions along central Tyrrhenean shore from La Spezia to Orbetello, 5 Sep 1943, Difesa Territoriale di Firenze, 6 maps (1:100,000).

CONFIDENTIAL

It. 740: A complete plan for the defense of Lazio (central Tyrrhenean) sea coast by the XVII Army Corps, 1942. Comando XVII Corpo d'Armata, 200 pp. text, 30 maps (1:100,000) and sketches.

It. 753: Alternative plan for destruction of port and river mouth facilities charged to XVII Army Corps, 1942, 8^o Regimento Genio, 4 pp. text, map and statistical tables.

It. 756: British Empire forces in Africa; Italian divisions under General Rommel. Figures on total employment of tanks, 1942, XIII Corpo d'Armata, 30 pp.

It. 769: Directives and circulars on the organization of coastal defense, and plans for same to cover Sardinia, Corsica, Lazio, and Tuscan areas. Shore frontage of La Spezia naval operating base, 1941-1943, Comando 5a Armata, 300 pp. text and map (1:25,000).

It. 776: Situation maps of the 5th Army components assigned to coast defense on the Lazio-Tuscan line, Pescara (Adriatic coast), and Sardinia. Natural barriers and other tank obstacles explained in legends. Air photos of Lucca airport, 1942-1943, Comando 5a Armata, 40 maps and sketches, scales are 1:25,000; 1:100,000; 1:250,000; 1:1,000,000 (regular and overlay), and vertical air photos.

It. 779: A list of general officers attached to the 5th army, 6 Aug (no year), Comando 5a Armata, 5 pp.

It. 798: Directives for the constitution and conduct of coastal defense in the French sector, Jan. 1943, Comando 4a Armata, 80 pp.

It. 814: Detailed plans to render inoperative, destroy and strip industry in Florence Command and Pescara area if plants are threatened with enemy seizure. Location of 12 Italian naval activities, 1943, Stato Maggiore Regio Esercito - Difesa Territoriale di Firenze, 50 pp. text and one map of Italy's potential areas of invasion.

It. 817: The personal diary and papers of Gen. Mario Caracciolo, Count of Feroleto, commander of the 4th and later 5th Army. Copies of orders issued by him are included, 1941 - 1942, Comando 5a Armata, numerous photographs, some official air photos taken in Africa.

It. 822 (Part of): German and Italian troop positions in the XVII Italian Corps area, situation maps, estimates of expected landings by US-British forces, 1943, Comando Gruppo Armate Sud, 4 pp. text and 4 maps.

CONFIDENTIAL

It. 823B: General situation reports on air, ground and naval defense; inspection report by 5th Army commander and Chief of Italian General Staff, 1943, Stato Maggiore R. Esercito - Comando 5a Armata, 200 pp. text and 4 maps.

It. 824-829: Defense of Sardinia against amphibious and paratroop landings. Studies by XIII Army Corps for approval of 5th Army, Comando 5a Armata, 400 pp. of text and tables, 50 maps and sketches (1:100,000 and others).

It. 832: XIII Army Corps correspondence with 5th Army on permanent and provisional fortification of Sardinia, 1943, Comando 5a Armata, 150 pp. text, maps and drawings.

It. 833: Situation graphs of permanent fortification work in progress and projected for Sardinia, 31 May 1942, Comando XIII Corpo d'Armata, 50 pp.

It. 834: Plans to fortify the Sardinian coastal areas charged to XIII Army Corps, 1941, Comando 7a Armata, 30 pp.

It. 838: Diagrams and correspondence on the installation of a military telephonic net for Sardinia with connections to the Italian mainland, 1943, XIII Corpo d'Armata, 200 pp. text, and 10 diagrams.

It. 845: Correspondence on the constitution of an estimated 20,000 civilian volunteer force to participate in the armed defense of Sardinia, 1943, XIII Corpo d'Armata, 50 pp.

It. 850: Italian General Staff consideration of 15,000 men to defend Corsica and Sardinia, German and Italian estimates of Sardinian defenses, 1943, Comando 5a Armata, 50 pp. text and 1 map (German with Italian translation).

It. 861: Statistical tables and map sketches of nine fields integrated into a major line of obstacles, 1941, XIII Corpo d'Armata, 22 pp. text and 12 maps (1:25,000).

It. 863: Statistical tables of potential demolitions in Sardinia, 1942, XIII Corpo d'Armata, 400 pp. text, drawings and sketch maps (1:25,000).

It. 863B: A plan to constitute irregular Sardinian units, 1924, Comando Divisione Militare di Cagliari, 25 pp.

It. 870: Monthly situation reports on Corsica addressed to Mussolini; French and Italian governments vie for loyalty of Corsicans, 1943, Comando 5a Armata, 40 pp. (Italian and French).

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

It. 1017 (Part of): Yugoslav fortifications near the Italian and German borders, 1940, Comando del Corpo d'Armata Corazzato, 8 pp. and 1 map (1:500,000).

It. 1017A: A logistical study of Slovenia and Croatia, 1940, Comando Corpo d'Armata Celere, 150 pp. text and 3 maps.

It. 1020A: A conditional operational plan for the conquest of Yugoslavia by Italy and her allies. Ten excellent panoramas of Yugoslav borders, 1940, Comando Armata del Po (6a Armata) 175 pp. text, 40 sketch maps and photographs.

It. 1021: An operational plan for the attack of Switzerland, Correspondence between corps and army commanders, and between the latter and the General Staff in Rome, 1932, 400 pp. text, sketches and maps (Italian and French).

It. 1048: Correspondence on the preparation of defenses for Italian airports in Sicily, Calabria and Sardinia, 1941, Comando 6a Armata, 200 pp. and 6 maps.

It. 1096 (Part of): Italian military intelligence reports, 1940, Comando Corpo d'Armata Corazzato - Servizio Informazioni Militare, 50 pp. text and 6 sketch maps.

It. 1139A: Correspondence between Italian High Command and Italian General Staff, and between Italian Naval Command and the High Command on the subject of invading Yugoslavia, 1940, Comando Supremo, 75 pp.

It. 1140A: A study of possible naval operation, independently of ground operation, against Yugoslavia. A general outline of initial attacks is included, 1940, Stato Maggiore Regia Marina, 24 pp.

It. 1141A: Directives for the invasion of Albania and civil organization of occupied Greece. Correspondence between field commanders and Rome during Italian operation in Greece, 1940-1941, Stato Maggiore R. Esercito, Ministero della Guerra, Comando Supremo, 500 pp. and 10 maps.

It. 1143A: Situation reports by Armed Forces Albania. Also directives and reports concerning the Duce's unexpected demobilization plan, in the light of total military effort by the Italian Empire, 1940, Stato Maggiore R. Esercito, Comando Supremo, Comando Superiore Truppe Albania, 125 pp.

CONFIDENTIAL

It. 1146A: Dispatches and other correspondence between Mussolini, High Command, General Staff and field commanders in Albania. The potential weight of Yugoslavia against the Axis powers, and its effect on Italy's moves in the Balkans, 1941, Superalba, Comando Supremo, 300 pp.

It. 1147A: A meeting of the Italian Joint Chiefs and other general officers of the High Command to discuss operations against Yugoslavia. The effect of Hitler's decision to attack Yugoslavia before Greece, 1941, Comando Supremo, 50 pp.

It. 1149A (Part of): Croatian volunteers are mobilized into regular units by the Croatian authorities, thus overstepping Italian permission to act as auxiliaries, 1941, Comando Supremo, Stato Maggiore Generale, 3pp.

It. 1150A (Part of): A memorandum and map explaining the disposition of Italian divisional and corps forces in Yugoslavia, April 1941, Stato Maggiore R. Esercito, 2 pp. and 1 map (1:1,000,000).

It. 1179: An Italian estimate of the strategic and tactical situation of Sardinia as compared to that of Sicily and Corsica, in January 1943, Stato Maggiore R. Esercito, 7 pp. and 2 maps (1:500,000).

It. 1180: Sardinian defense preparations, with emphasis on coastal defense, March 1943, Stato Maggiore R. Esercito, 7 pp. 12 maps and graphs.

It. 1181: A memorandum viewing the operational future in the defense of Italy and the Balkans against US-UK-Turk alliance, February 1943, Comando Supremo.

It. 1188: A report by Italian Military Intelligence on the presumed strength of Allied merchant shipping at the end of 1943. A brief survey of submarine warfare against the convoy system, April 1943, Stato Maggiore R. Esercito, S.I.M. 3 pp.

It. 1189: An estimate of possible US-British landings in Europe and the consequent operations of the Italian Air Force, February 1943, Superaereo, 31 pp.

It. 1193: A map of the Russian Eastern Front, sketching Axis powers and Red Army dispositions on 7 January 1943. The Italian Alpine Corps, the 7th Hungarian Corps, Freiter Pico and Reising groups are shown, 1943, Comando 8a Armata, Italian legend on German road map (1:300,000).

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

It. 1197: Troop dispositions of Italo-German forces on the Eastern Front from Leningrad to Novorossiysk, February to August 1942, Comando Supremo, 4 maps (1:1,000,000) (1:2,500,000).

It. 1198 (A,B,C,D,E and F): Six situation graphs of Italian troop dispositions in Yugoslavia (Slovenia, Croatia, and Dalmatia, February-August 1943, Comando Supremo-Ufficio Operazioni, 6 maps (1:500,000 and 1:1,000,000).

It. 1199 (A and B): Bulgarian, Italian and German troop dispositions in Yugoslavia (Montenegro), Albania, Greece, and Aegean Islands, March-April 1943, Comando Supremo, 2 maps (1:1,000,000).

It. 1200 (A and B): Italian troop dispositions in Albania, Greece, and islands of the Aegean on 26 April 1943; in Albania and Greece on 26 July 1943, Comando Supremo, 2 maps (1:1,000,000).

It. 1221A: Situation maps of British Empire, Italian and German troop dispositions in Egypt. One map has English and Arabic titles, with German and Italian legends added, May 1942, Servizio Informazioni Militare, 5 maps (1:100,000), (1:2,000,000) and (1:3,800,000).

It. 1222A: A report by the Italian Air Force Headquarters to the Chief of the High Command /Chairman of Italian Joint Chiefs/ Tabular and essay presentation of all activities for the first half of 1939, Ufficio di Stato Maggiore della Regia Aeronautica, 100 pp.

It. 1234: Daily report on planes and crews for October 1940 by Italian Air Force Headquarters, Ufficio Stato Maggiore della R. Aeronautica, Superaerco, 100 pp. of tables, transmittal letters.

It. 1249: A daily report on the planes and crews of the Italian Air Force, June 1941, Stato Maggiore della R. Aeronautica Superaereo, 100 pp. of tables, transmittal sheets.

It. 1310B: Daily reports of September and August, 1943, plane losses for both camps. Also recapitulation of US-Allied air and sea losses in Sicilian campaign. Also tables for use in celestial navigation, 1943, Regia Aeronautica - Ufficio Operazioni, Ministero dell'Aeronautica, 190 pp.

It. 1350: A record of quartermaster, engineer and other services supplied to the Italian Expeditionary Force to Russia, June through September 1942, Comando Supremo-Ufficio Servizio, 140 pp.

CONFIDENTIAL

It. 1358: Some war material supplied to Italy by European countries, and an unsuccessful attempt to tabulate Italian economic warfare exports, 1942, Comando Supremo-Ufficio Servizi Scacchiere Europa, 50 pp.

It. 1360: Directives, dispatches and figures on the oversea routing of Italian troops and equipment, 1942, Comando Supremo Ufficio Ordinamento e Addestramento, 90 pp.

It. 1361: Various directives and other correspondence regarding mobilization, training and equipment, 125 pp. Comando Supremo Ufficio Ordinamento e Addestramento Ministero della Guerra, 125 pp.

It. 1377: An Italian translation of German instructions on the care of small arms in cold weather. Other cold weather engineering, especially for artillery, 1942, Comando Supremo Ufficio Servizi, 30 pp. Italian and German.

It. 1378: Engineer and signal equipment sent to 8th Army. Request for equipment from the OKW because of Italian shortages, 1942, Comando Supremo-Ufficio Servizi, 75 pp.

It. 1379: The logistics of Italian and German military medicine. Reports on epidemics. Soviets refuse to allow Italian hospital ship in the Black Sea, 1942, Comando Supremo-Ufficio Servizi, 125 pp.

It. 1380: Fifteen graphs and other data on the 8th Army, as organized for expedition to the USSR, April-June 1942, Stato Maggiore R. Esercito Ufficio Ordinamento, 400 pp.

It. 1381: Correspondence between field commands in the USSR and various headquarters and civilian agencies in Rome and Berlin regarding the capture of metal parts to be sent to Italy. The abuse of the system by individual soldiers. Comando Supremo Ufficio Servizi, 80 pp.

It. 1382: Agreements and disagreement of Italian and German high commands concerning the services of supply on the eastern front in the USSR in Italy and elsewhere. Also various problems discussed through General Marras, Italian attache in Berlin, Comando Supremo, 175 pp.

It. 1383: Figures and maps on total strength of Italian Expeditionary Force to Russia. Also movements to area reorganization, 1942, Comando Supremo-Ufficio Servizi, 2 maps and 2 graphs.

It. 1384: Statistical tables of troop and supply trains for the eastern front in the USSR, 1942, Comando Supremo-Ufficio Servizi, 75 pp.

CONFIDENTIAL

It. 1385: Transfer of two divisions and other units to the Russian front, November 1942, Comando Supremo-Ufficio Servizi, 40 pp.

It. 1386: A record of services supplied the 8th Army (Italian Expeditionary Force) during the winter campaign in Russia, 1942-1943, Comando Supremo-Ufficio, 35 pp.

It. 1388: Highway and railroad routes to transport Italian Expeditionary Force to Russian front, 1942, Comando Supremo-Ufficio Servizi, 2 sketch maps (1:3,000,000).

It. 1389: Organization of the railroad routes and rear net for the Italian Expeditionary Force, from Italy to Stalino, 1942, Direzione Superiore Trasporti Stato Maggiore R. Esercito, 4 pp. text and 4 maps (1:3,000,000).

It. 1390: Lists of Italian headquarters and personnel stationed in Rumania, August 1942, Comando Supremo-Ufficio Servizi, 5 pp.

It. 1391: Monthly reports on Italian casualties returned from the eastern front in the USSR. Air and land transportation reports and telegrams about the same. Total Italian repatriates from the eastern front from December 1942 to March 1943 (98,264), Superaereo, Comando Supremo-Ufficio Servizi, 500 pp.

It. 1397: Minutes of Italo-German conference on transportation crisis in the Balkans, 7 July 1943, Comando Supremo-Ufficio Traffico, 40 pp.

It. 1422: Official war communiques and bulletins disseminated in Italian and other languages, 8 August - 5 September 1943, Comando Supremo - S.I.M., 400 pp.

It. 1507: Situation graphs of Italian railroads showing partial and complete interruptions, 5 - 8 September 1943, Stato Maggiore R. Esercito Direzione Superiore Trasporti, 4 sketch maps (approx. 1:500,000).

It. 1548: A summary of an operational plan to attack Salonika and other areas of Greece, 1941, Stato Maggiore Generale del Comando Supremo, 2 pp. and 2 maps (1:300,000).

CONFIDENTIAL

It. 1588: Italian Air Force afteraction reports on the Mediterranean theatre, April 1943, Comando Supremo-Ufficio Operazioni, 200 pp.

It. 1598: Italian monograph on Spanish airbases and emergency fields including civilian airfields, 1 July 1930, Ufficio di Stato Maggiore della Regia Aeronautica, 75 pp. with photos and maps (various scales).

It. 1612: Circulars on and examples of the soldier's correspondence with his family. Soldiers benefits and decorations, 1942, Comando FF.AA. Slovenia-Dalmazia, Stato Maggiore R. Esercito Ufficio Propaganda, 90 pp.

It. 1631 (Part of): An essay on what Italian regulars may expect from warfare conducted by partisans. A lecture addressed to all officers of an infantry regiment, 1942, Reggimento Granatieri di Sardegna.

It. 4333: Panoramic photos of operations in the French Alps near the Piedmont region. Air photos of fortifications in nearby areas, June - October 1940, 400 photographs (scale 1:5,000, 1:15,000 and others).

It. 4334: Construction details and panoramas of forts, pillboxes, emplacements, barracks, roads on the Italo-French border, in the Piedmont region, 1938, 60 photographs.

It. 4335: Air photos of Asti city, Giaveno area, Turin, etc., 1940, 19° Stormo Osservazione, 30 photographs (1:6,000; 1:7,000).

It. 4336: Panoramas and air photos of mountainous territory in the Piedmont region near the French border, 1940, XIX Stormo Ricognizione, 25 photographs (1:52,000 and others).

It. 4347: Panoramic views of Italian-French border in the VI, VII, VIII and IX Italian sectors, no date, 1° Corpo d'Armata, 18 folders.

It. 4697: Strip photographs of fortifications near Babina Polica, Bosnia, Comando VI° Corpo d'Armata, 40 photographs.

- E N D -

- 17 -

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL